The Charles Close Society was founded in 1980 to bring together all those with an interest in the maps and history of the Ordnance Survey of Great Britain and its counterparts in the island of Ireland. The Society takes its name from Colonel Sir Charles Arden-Close, OS Director General from 1911 to 1922, and initiator of many of the maps now sought after by collectors.

The Society publishes a wide range of books and booklets on historic OS map series and its journal, Sheetlines, is recognised internationally for its specialist articles on Ordnance Survey-related topics.

H E M Newman

Andrew Cook¹ referred to Lt.-Col. Newman's The work of the Ordnance Survey outside Great Britain and Ireland [not Northern Ireland], produced in 1934.

This is simply to record the existence of copies of this document, as at November 2006, in, inter alia:

Ordnance Survey Library (original typescript plus two carbon copies),
British Library, Map Library,
Bodleian Library, Map Room,
Cambridge University Library, Map Library.
