The Charles Close Society was founded in 1980 to bring together all those with an interest in the maps and history of the Ordnance Survey of Great Britain and its counterparts in the island of Ireland. The Society takes its name from Colonel Sir Charles Arden-Close, OS Director General from 1911 to 1922, and initiator of many of the maps now sought after by collectors.

The Society publishes a wide range of books and booklets on historic OS map series and its journal, Sheetlines, is recognised internationally for its specialist articles on Ordnance Survey-related topics.

Hall and Yolland - original correspondence

The Ordnance Survey Librarian, Cathy Layton, tells me that this file (item 4690), cited by Richard Oliver in *Sheetlines 81*⁷ was withdrawn from the OS Library on 6 May 2004 and sent to The National Archives (PRO).
