The Charles Close Society was founded in 1980 to bring together all those with an interest in the maps and history of the Ordnance Survey of Great Britain and its counterparts in the island of Ireland. The Society takes its name from Colonel Sir Charles Arden-Close, OS Director General from 1911 to 1922, and initiator of many of the maps now sought after by collectors.

The Society publishes a wide range of books and booklets on historic OS map series and its journal, Sheetlines, is recognised internationally for its specialist articles on Ordnance Survey-related topics.

Soviet military city plans of British Isles

John Davies

In Uncle Joe knew where you lived in Sheetlines 72 (2005) a list was given of 80 known plans of British and Irish towns and cities produced by the Soviet military during the cold war. Subsequently, more have come to light and the following table shows the latest list of 91 known plans, comprising 164 sheets. Names are as shown on the sheets; the symbol + after compilation date indicates later revision; scale is 1:10,000 or 1:25,000.
